RE: Campus Assignment and Focus Area

DATE: May 20, 2019

Congratulations on your selection as a 2019 Governor's Scholar. It is our pleasure to inform you that you have been assigned to the campus of Bellarmine University in Louisville. We will gather on Sunday, June 23rd with approximately 350 scholars to begin this special experience. Approximately twenty-five of the best high school and college faculty in Kentucky and beyond will teach and serve as administrators at the Bellarmine campus. Approximately twenty-five outstanding college students will serve as resident advisors and office staff.

The focus area you have been assigned to is: «Selected_Major»

After applying certain programmatic rules (e.g. scholars from the same school should not be in the same class, gender balances, etc.), we have worked diligently to give you one of the three choices you originally selected. Shortly before the Program begins, the instructor of your focus area will write you to give you a better idea of what to expect in class.

Check-in times for Opening Day, Sunday, June 23rd, are as follows:
(All times are Eastern Time Zone; letters refer to beginning letters of last names)

M-R	8:45 a.m.
S-Z	9:30 a.m.
A-E	10:15 a.m.
F-L	11:00 a.m.

Check-in will take place in Frazier Hall (see campus map).

Since you have signed a Learning Contract, we expect that you will attend the GSP. If unforeseen circumstances will prevent you from attending, please notify us immediately. Many alternates are not making plans until they hear whether or not there may be room for them in the Program.

We can only surmise how excited, apprehensive, eager, and uncertain you are about this summer. Let us assure you that it is normal to experience many conflicting emotions as you anticipate being away from familiar surroundings and living on the Bellarmine campus as a member of the GSP community for five weeks. We believe that you are about to embark on a tremendous adventure that can impact your future immensely. The GSP is designed to present you with new challenges for intellectual, creative, social, and personal growth. You will be given more autonomy and responsibility than you may have previously experienced. Although you may be overwhelmed at first, if you are open and flexible to new experiences and people, you will find GSP truly rewarding. One of your challenges will be to successfully negotiate the many decisions you will have the freedom to make while at GSP. We expect you to be responsible for ensuring that your experience is positive. In addition, we expect you to be responsible to the GSP community, where every member is important and makes an impact.

It is possible to build a strong base of both academic and social experiences in just five weeks that can serve you well in the future. In order to do so, we encourage you to live your GSP experience to the fullest and to take ownership of the countless opportunities to exchange ideas with an array of intelligent and talented people from a variety of backgrounds. Also, be receptive to new ideas, expand your vision, and investigate spheres you might never have considered before. Sample Kentucky's "uncommon wealth," while taking time to reflect on your experiences.

Many of your preconceived expectations of GSP will be realized or exceeded, and a few may fall short. The most significant thing you can do to ensure that your positive expectations are fulfilled or exceeded is to be an active participant in the GSP experience: immerse yourself in your classes, generate questions, spend time outside of class conversing with faculty and peers about topics of class discussions, discover ways to interrelate your areas of study with diverse disciplines, and search for new perspectives on familiar subjects. Being active also means getting involved in the co-curricular activities: initiate and join clubs, participate in athletic events, be attentive to the speakers during convocations, thoughtfully observe the films shown, launch a community service project, or be involved in some other unique and beneficial way. Acknowledge and share your talents and abilities in a positive way with other scholars, R.A.s, staff, and faculty members.

We earnestly encourage you to make a commitment to getting to know as many scholars as possible during this five-week period. GSP strives to cultivate within you an appreciation for diversity; therefore, we urge and challenge you to meet scholars of different geographic, economic, religious, and ethnic backgrounds. The more we respect one another and are enthusiastic about learning from each other, the greater our opportunity to create a better world in the future.

If you live this experience to the fullest, the strong base you begin building can repay you and society manifold in the future. Kentucky has invested in your future by funding this program. Without knowing you personally, many have given their best to provide you with an excellent experience. Your role in this investment is to take advantage of it. There is much room in the world for the new ideas you will generate during your GSP experience. We can all be enriched by your future contributions. We know that you will strive to live up to your intellectual and social potential this summer.

As a note regarding social media, we know that some of you will begin connecting with fellow scholars via social media before GSP. While that is acceptable, please remember that the people with whom you connect online will not be the whole community – you'll make many more friends once you are on campus. Don't try to define your experience before the experience happens, and remember that others (including the GSP staff) will be able to see much of the communication you have before the Program.

In closing, we hope we have begun to prepare you to meet the challenges you'll encounter as you enter the intense, fast-paced, potentially exhilarating world of GSP 2019. We have endeavored to create an environment where you can recognize that true learning is a lifelong adventure.

Should you or your family have any additional questions or concerns, please check the frequently asked questions page at our website (gsp.ky.gov) under the "Applicants" tab or feel free to contact Jen Price via email at jennifer.price@georgetowncollege.edu. As of Monday, June 10th, the GSP-Bellarmino office will be open, and you may contact us at gsp@bellarmine.edu.

We are eager to become acquainted with you and to begin this summer's journey together. See you on June 23rd

RE: General information about the Governor's Scholars Program

DATE: May 20, 2019

The day is not far off when we will be saying "hello" to your son or daughter, and you will be saying "see you later" for a few weeks as your child begins what we know will be a wonderful and unique educational experience.

If you are like past GSP families, right now you are probably justifiably proud but also a little anxious. The scholars themselves will also be a little anxious just before arriving. They will wonder about their roommate and their Resident Advisor, whether their friendships will survive their five-week absence or worse—whether their dog or cat will forget them or pine away without them.

Families do their own share of tossing and turning just before the Program begins. "Is my scholar ready for 5 weeks away from home?" "Will I hear from her/him?" "What if he/she gets homesick, or calls and is unhappy?" "Will he/she come home a different person?" These are important, natural, and uneasy questions and concerns. Our Opening Day schedule is not insensitive to such apprehensions. We structure the opening so that your scholar will have enough time to get settled in our living, learning environment, but without prolonging the discomfort that some may feel when leaving.

We ask that you respect our schedule in the early moments of the Program, which sets the tone for all of us. It will be helpful if you gather all of your scholar's supplies prior to your arrival. That way, you won't need to include last-minute shopping in the busy opening afternoon.

The schedule for Opening Day, Sunday, June 23rd, is as follows:

8:45-12:15 Arrive and check-in at Frazier Hall (see campus map)
(EST) Last names beginning with letters:

M-R	8:45 a.m.
S-Z	9:30 a.m.
A-E	10:15 a.m.
F-L	11:00 a.m.

2:30-3:15	Parents & Guardians meeting in Knights Hall (no 2019 scholar should be at this meeting) Residence Hall meetings for scholars
3:15-4:00	Opening Ceremonies in Knights Hall (scholars enter)
4:00-5:00	Mandatory Community Meeting for 2019 scholars in Knights Hall

Note that there will be a specific informational time for families while the scholars are being introduced to their residence hall, R.A., and other scholars. Then, following the Opening Ceremonies, there will be a short time for a “see you later.”

We also want to let you know that on Opening Day, you and your scholar will have the opportunity to purchase a few souvenirs from this summer, including GSP group photos, Proud Parent t-shirts, GSP apparel, and other memorabilia (see attached memento page). Please note that GSP accepts credit/debit cards (MasterCard and Visa only), cash, or check.

Family Day: Sunday, July 7th is the day we set aside for parents and family members to visit the campus, see their children, and take their scholar off campus. Scholars may leave the campus with their families from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. that day if they wish. Requests to keep scholars overnight (either Saturday or Sunday evening) will not be honored.

Closing Day: There will be a Closing Ceremony on Saturday, July 27th from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. Parents and family members are welcome to attend this event, which will be the culmination of the summer experience for our 2019 scholars. Details will be shared with you on Opening Day.

This summer, the Governor’s Scholars Program begins its thirty-seventh summer of operation. The extraordinary, dedicated, and talented group of faculty, resident advisors, and office and administrative staff are looking forward to making this a wonderful summer for your scholar.

All telephone calls to scholars should go to their personal phones. Cell phones can be used in residence hall dorm rooms. In case of emergency, please contact the Governor's Scholars Program office during daytime hours, Monday through Friday, and the University Office of Public Safety (502) 272-7777 after hours and on weekends. For security reasons, an individual scholar's room/phone number will not be given by phone at any time.

Health Services

Scholars must bring their own medications and doctors' instructions. Scholars may want to bring some basic medicines (e.g., ibuprofen or an antihistamine) with them in order to treat very minor illnesses. Scholars may keep medications in their own rooms.

Routine medical concerns may be treated by nursing services provided by health services on campus (a small fee may be applicable). Arrangements have been made for scholars who need allergy shots to get them at the health clinic. As appropriate, scholars will be treated for major injuries and illnesses at Norton's Patient First Immediate Care Center or Norton Audubon Hospital, located near the Bellarmine University campus.

Food Service

All meals will be served in the main campus cafeteria, which will be reserved for the exclusive use of GSP.

Athletic and Recreational Facilities Available to Scholars

Fitness center, weight room, tennis, basketball, and other facilities will be available during the five-week program.

Religious Services

Opportunities for Scholars to continue their faith traditions are found adjacent to or within walking distance of the campus. Transportation to and from services may be provided by the Governor's Scholars Program and/or by local churches. This is the only exception to the rule prohibiting scholars from riding in any unofficial vehicles, with permission from the Campus Director.

Banking

There is a 5/3rd kiosk located by the University Dining Hall and one located in Horrigan Hall.

Residence Hall Information

- Scholars will be assigned to a double occupancy residence hall room. We are not able to distribute roommate names or information before the Program begins.
- Scholars will have shared restrooms on the hall and should bring light cleaning supplies for the bathrooms.
- All Residence Halls are air-conditioned.
- All beds are twin beds. Scholars will need to bring linens and pillow. Extra long twin sheets work best.
- All residence halls have automatic Fire Suppression Systems for safety.
- Every residence hall room will have a refrigerator and microwave and scholars are not allowed to bring additional appliances.
- Free laundry facilities are available in each hall. Scholars will need to provide their own detergent, etc.
- Scholars may bring their own cell phones to use in their rooms.
- TV sets, personal computers, personal DVD players, tablets, and E-readers are not allowed.
- Courtesy Hours in Residence Halls: Scholars will be required to respect others' needs for quiet time and rest during the following night time hours:
 - Sunday - Thursday after 10:30 pm
 - Friday - Saturday after 11:00 pm

Visitors

The only provision for visitation for family is on Family Day (Sunday, July 7th). No visitors are allowed without permission of the Campus Director.

Lost Key Charge

Scholars will be charged $50.00 for losing a room key during the program or not returning the room key at the end of the program. For security reasons, each time a key is lost, the key core on the door must be changed. The charge of $50.00 each time a key is lost or not returned helps defray this replacement cost.

Questions and More Information

Please direct questions about GSP to the Program and not to offices at Bellarmine University. The GSP-Bellarmino University office officially opens on Monday, June 10th, but prior to that date you can send questions to jennifer.price@georgetowncollege.edu. After June 10th, you may also e-mail us at gsp@bellarmine.edu. Please do not try to make appointments in Louisville (for example, with a Bellarmine University coach or with a local church) before contacting the Campus Director.

Information about the Governor's Scholars Program and Bellarmine University can be found at gsp.ky.gov and gsp.bellarmino.edu

GOVERNOR'S SCHOLARS PROGRAM POLICIES AND NON-NEGOTIABLE RULES

Each scholar will experience what it means to live closely with others in a community. Scholars are likely to develop lifelong friendships, even though the experience is only for five weeks. During this time, scholars will learn a great deal about themselves and about other people.

Since the community setting is such an important part of the scholar's experience, there is one overriding philosophy that permeates all that scholars do:

EACH SCHOLAR HAS THE FREEDOM TO GROW AND DEVELOP HIS OR HER OWN POTENTIAL. EACH SCHOLAR MUST RESPECT THE OTHER PERSON'S FREEDOM TO DO LIKEWISE. THEREFORE, ONE INDIVIDUAL'S FREEDOM EXTENDS AS FAR AS THE NEXT INDIVIDUAL'S FREEDOM. INHERENT WITHIN THESE FREEDOMS ARE THE RESPONSIBILITIES THAT EACH OWES TO THE OTHER.

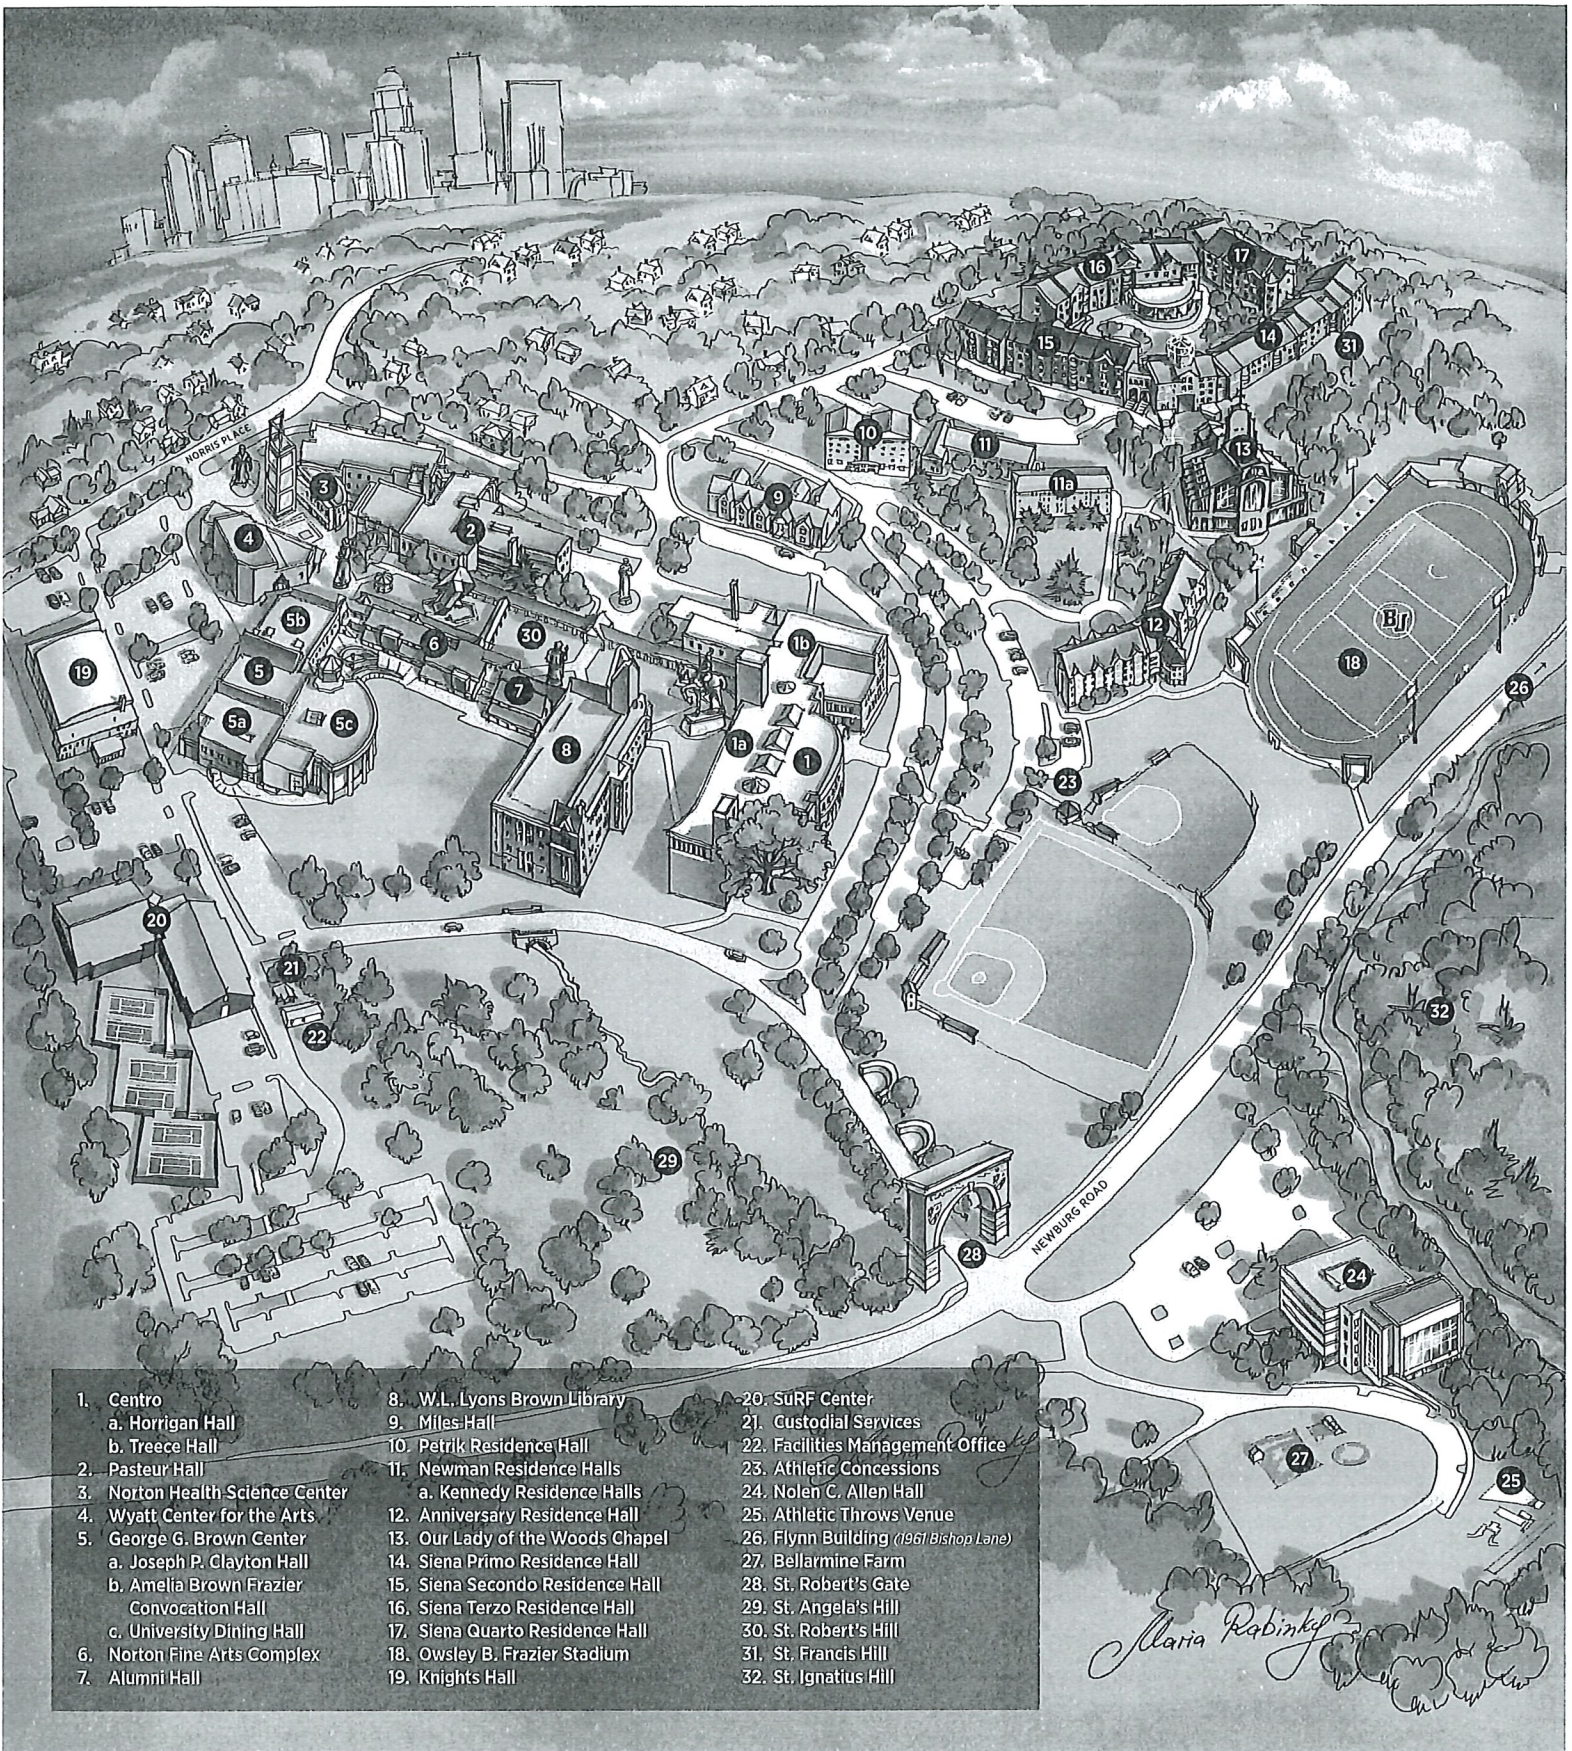

Our few non-negotiable rules and regulations are governed by law, safety, and common concerns for the total community. They are:

1. No firearms of any kind will be allowed.
2. Possession or consumption of drugs, drug paraphernalia, including alcoholic beverages, vapes and juuls are prohibited.
3. Piercing of any part of the body is strictly prohibited.
4. Automobiles and other motorized vehicles are prohibited, as is riding in unauthorized vehicles.
5. Intentional destructive behavior will not be tolerated.
6. Scholars are reminded of the contract they signed. They must attend class daily, be on time for class, and participate fully. They have agreed to remain for the complete term of the program and cannot leave before it is completed or between the beginning and end, except for illness or true emergency.

Infraction of any of the preceding regulations will put the scholar in jeopardy of immediate dismissal from the Program. The Campus Director of the Governor's Scholars Program will make those determinations.

In addition, the Program has a few policies that are related to the overall good of the community. They are the following:

1. All scholars must sign out with their Resident Advisors or other authorized supervisors when leaving the designated campus area and sign in upon returning. In the event of emergencies, the scholar's location must be known by staff members.
2. There will be a 10:30 p.m. curfew on weeknights (Sunday through Thursday) and an 11:00 p.m. curfew on weekends. By curfew, all Scholars must sign in with their Resident Advisors on their hall floors. Scholars may not leave the residence hall after curfew.
3. Visitations between men and women will be confined to the ground floor lounges of the residence halls. This regulation guarantees each individual's need for privacy.
4. Courtesy hours will be enforced from 10:30 p.m. until morning through the week, and from 11:00 p.m. during the weekends. This means that individuals will engage in quiet activities while in the residence hall areas. Scholars will be required to respect others' needs for quiet time and rest during these times.
5. Bicycles, roller skates, roller blades, or skateboards are not permitted.
6. Cell phones are permitted only in individual rooms. TV sets, personal computers, personal DVD players, tablets and E-readers are not allowed.
7. Smoking is not allowed.
8. Absolutely no visitors are allowed for the duration of the Program. The only exception for visitors is Family Day. To appreciate this rule, scholars must understand that one of the purposes of the program is to build a community and achieve a cohesive, self-contained environment in which scholars can study and come to know one another with a minimum of external distractions. Therefore, visits by parents/guardians will be permitted ONLY on Family Day (Sunday, July 7th). No other visitors are allowed at this time unless accompanied by parents/guardians. All parents/guardians must check in and check out with a Resident Advisor in the residence hall.

Dress

To help ensure a respectful community of learners and an environment conducive to learning, GSP establishes these guidelines for student dress:

- * Outdoor temperatures are usually warm, so bring light, mostly casual clothing (comfortable summer clothes, such as jeans, shorts, skirts, t-shirts, blouses, sport shirts, etc.) A casual skirt for some field trips may be very useful.
- * Air conditioning keeps academic spaces well chilled, so warmer attire is recommended indoors (sweaters, sweatshirts, etc.)
- * Avoid clothing that reveals midriffs, backs, or undergarments.
- * Clothing should be neat, comfortable, and modest. Shoes and shirts must be worn at all times.

You may also want to consider:

- * Raincoat and/or umbrella; hiking clothes and shoes for field trips (be sure to include a long sleeve shirt).
- * Dress clothes, for religious services and special events (i.e. a dress, sport coat, tie, and slacks).
- * Sleepwear/robe: bathrooms will be shared by other scholars.
- * Athletic equipment and clothes: swimsuit, baseball or softball glove, backpack, tennis or racquetball racket, etc.

Special Notices

- * Each student will have a private closet in his/her room. While we don't anticipate that there will be any real problem with theft, in a large community living situation such as ours, things may disappear. WE WOULD DISCOURAGE ANYONE FROM BRINGING ANYTHING VALUABLE (jewelry, large amounts of cash, expensive stereo equipment, etc.) with them this summer.

- * TV SETS, PERSONAL COMPUTERS, PERSONAL DVD PLAYERS, TABLETS and E-READERS ARE NOT ALLOWED. DO NOT BRING THEM.

- * The Governor's Scholars Program can assume no responsibility or liability for loss or damage of personal items.

- * Incense, candles, or anything that produces open flame is prohibited. Possession or use of alcohol, drugs, drug paraphernalia, firearms, or motorized vehicles is prohibited.

- * Smoking is not allowed. Roller skates, roller blades, or skateboards are not permitted on campus.

- * NO PETS are allowed.

THESE PROHIBITIONS WILL BE STRICTLY ENFORCED.

What To Bring

What to Bring

This list of items was designed to help make your stay in the residence hall more enjoyable. The items contained in this brochure are only suggested items to bring. You do not necessarily need all of them. Scholars will have the opportunity to visit a supermarket during the summer.

Bedding

- * 2 sheets and 2 pillow cases-twin size (extra long or jersey knit fit best). If you bring two sets of sheets, laundry will be easier.
- * Mattress pad (eggcrates work well)
- * Blanket
- * Pillow
- * Comforter/bedspread

Toiletries

- * Towels and wash cloths (2 or more would make laundry easier)
- * Shower shoes (flip flops, etc.)
- * Towels for swimming
- * Shower caddy
- * Robe
- * Shampoo, soap, soap dish, toothbrush, toothpaste, hair products, hand soap, toilet paper, hair dryer, shaving equipment, deodorant, etc.

Room Accessories

- * Alarm clock and/or wrist watch. Students should not plan to use cell phone to determine time outside of the dorm room.
- * Power strip
- * Lamp/fan
- * Storage crates
- * Radios and/or Personal MP3 players will be permitted in the dorm room only.
- * Cleaning supplies and a waste basket
- * Dorm refrigerator (see campus specific guidelines.)

Laundry Items

- * Basket/bag/hangers
- * Detergent/fabric softener/dryer sheets

First Aid

- * Band-aids
- * Any prescribed and/or over-the-counter medication. Remember common ailments that may occur (headaches, muscle aches, heartburn, indigestion, allergies, bug bites, etc.)

Miscellaneous Items

- * Iron
- * Camera. Students should not plan to use cell phone as a camera.
- * Deck of cards/board games
- * Things to read in spare time
- * Stationery/postage stamps and pens or pencils
- * Small amount of paper products and silverware (towels, plates, cups, forks, etc.), if you plan to eat in the residence hall
- * Food storage containers
- * Musical instruments, if you plan to practice or use them to perform (pianos are available)
- * Spending money: this need not be much; you will need personal funds for such items as snacks, pizza, stamps, and personal items. Scholar spending varies—you may want to check with several alumni.
- * Clothing, art, music, or costumes for weekly showcase, Arts Day, dances, etc.

Please refer to your Campus Guide for specific residential information.
